

Patrolman Jeffrey Manning Phegley was shot and killed in the line of duty on January 21, 1987, while performing a routine traffic stop. He was a Police Officer for the Village of Morrow in Warren County, Ohio. Jeff was 22 years old.

A jury convicted Anthony Wayne McIntosh of the murder on August 18, 1987. He was sentenced to 15 years to life with an additional 3 years for using a gun during the commission of his crime.

In March of 2000, Inmate McIntosh was granted a parole hearing. The Parole Board recommended that parole be denied and that recommendation was reviewed and upheld by the Central Office Review Board of the Ohio Adult Parole Authority.

Inmate McIntosh is once again coming up for parole.

We need your help. Please take a few minutes to sign the petition, write a personal letter, or sign the attached form letter, requesting that Inmate McIntosh's parole be again denied, and that he be required to serve his life sentence.

Your correspondence may be mailed directly to the Parole board:
